Wauneta Community Fund

Announces our Hometown Intern 2023

Michaela Dukes

mdukes@nebcommfound.org

Working on behalf of the Nebraska Community Foundation and the Wauneta Community Fund, Michaela will work with our local Fund Advisory Committee to put our group and community on track for success. She is part of a team of interns from across Nebraska learning community development skills and putting those skills into action for their hometowns!

Michaela has called Wauneta home for over 10 years, graduating from WP in 2020. Her dad, Mike Dukes, is a Deputy Sheriff with the Chase County Sheriff's Office. Her mother, Cammi Dukes, is a nurse. Michaela says she is very grateful her family made the move from Elwood to Wauneta "because I met the most important people in my life and my friends when I went to Wauneta-Palisade Schools."

Michaela is currently working on her elementary education degree through Chadron State College while working as para during the school year at Wauneta-Palisade. She attended Central Community College in Columbus where she played volleyball for two years. She graduated with her Associates Degree in criminal justice in 2022. Michaela loves working with her students, helping guide young minds and assisting them in becoming their own person.

When asked what she loves about Wauneta, Michaela said, "I love the small hometown feeling where everyone looks out for each other. I love how Wauneta has a very big supportive community when it comes to families, education, athletics and other events!"

You can follow Michaela's summer internship, Wauneta Happenings newsletters and other Wauneta Community Fund news on FaceBook by liking our page: Wauneta Nebraska - Past, Present and Future

Margaret Metcalf Howie bequeathal provides for ongoing care of Wauneta's Riverside Cemetery

Wauneta native Margaret Metcalf Howie made sure to remember her hometown in her will in a way that would benefit the town and honor her family with a lasting legacy. Margaret worked with the Nebraska Community Foundation to establish an endowment to make sure there would always be money available for maintenance and improvements at the Wauneta Cemetery. The $67,000 endowment was designated to the Wauneta Community Fund, an affiliated fund of the Nebraska Community Foundation. Wauneta's Fund Advisory Committee will oversee that disbursement of money from the endowment to the Village of Wauneta for use at the cemetery on an ongoing basis. Disbursements will become available in fiscal year 2024.

Margaret was born in Wauneta, NE in 1931, a great-granddaughter of Nebraska homesteaders. She graduated from Wauneta High School in 1948, winning a Regents' Scholarship to the University of Nebraska. She received a B.A. degree with a dual major in Anthropology and English in 1952. She worked for the Missouri River Basin Survey after graduating, doing salvage archeology at dam sites in the Dakotas. She went on to attend the University of Denver where she received the M.A. degree in Library Science in 1954. Margaret began working at the University of Denver Mary Reed Library, and then became a reference librarian in the Western History Department of the Denver Public Library.

She married John Howie in 1956; son Stephen was born in 1960. After an interval as a homemaker, Margaret resumed her career as a part-time cataloguer at the Hugh Stephens Library of Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, in 1969. She went full-time two years later, and became Head of Technical Services in 1977. During the following years she supervised the transition from the traditional card catalog to an electronic cataloguing system, frequently visiting other libraries around the country to observe their systems and confer with their staffs.

John Howie died suddenly in 1990. Margaret retired in 1993. She continued to live in Columbia until she realized that "almost everyone I knew here had either moved away or died." In 2004 she moved back to Lincoln to be close to friends from college. Margaret died in October 2021. She is survived by her son, Stephen, of Lincoln.

Margaret's mother, Elizabeth Pepper Metcalf, died when Margaret was just a baby. She was raised by her father, noted Wauneta archeologist Dr. George S. Metcalf, and an extended family of aunts and uncles and cousins including the Olivers, Christensens, Fannings, Novaceks and Metcalfs.

Dr. George S. Metcalf, one of Wauneta's most distinguished native sons, was a field archeologist, a historian of the Great Plains, and a supervisor of the processing laboratory of the Department of Anthropology at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. He was born in a sod house near Wauneta in 1900 and began collecting artifacts during his boyhood along the Frenchman River and its tributaries in southwest Nebraska.

Although his formal education ended in the eighth grade, he became a professional archeologist. He authored numerous published articles, reports and bulletins in the course of his career. In 1970, he was awarded an honorary ScD. by Luther College. That same year, Metcalf was sent by the Smithsonian as its representative to help catalog the Gavin Sampson collection of artifacts at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa. During his time at Luther, Metcalf developed cataloging procedures and helped train students in basic laboratory techniques. Dr. Metcalf died in 1975. Both of Margaret's parents are buried at Riverside Cemetery as are many of her aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Margaret's roots in Chase County date back long before Chase County was established. Her great-grandfather, Stephen McElroy, headed up the surveying party sent to this region when it was still populated by Native Americans. The surveying crew of McElroy, Fairchild and Wells was dispatched to this area in the early 1870s by the U.S. government to establish section lines and townships for future development. When they arrived, they found an Indian village nearby, ruled by Chief Whistler, who asked the surveyors to leave. They continued their work, however. In the night, the Indians pulled the stakes and destroyed the markings and military protection became necessary for McElroy and his surveying crew to continue their work. When an inspector later inquired to the lack of precision in staking out the area, McElroy replied, "If you had to divide your attention between your instruments and your rifle, you might not be too accurate either."
