WAUNETA LIBRARY NEWS

Happy Fourth of July, all!! Our little library is in full summer swing with our Summer Reading Program wrapping up on Wednesday, July 3rd. Our project will be (mini) flag-making in honor of Independence Day ~ so be sure your littles don't miss out!

In other news, we have an exciting announcement to make! We won a GORGEOUS telescope from the Omaha Astronomical Society! We are so excited to share this beautiful piece of equipment with our community as well as provide books regarding the solar system, stars and their constellations, and manuals for usage. The telescope can be checked out, please see Library Director for details!

Our current featured author is Nicholas Sparks. We have numerous novels written by Sparks (and many are in large print). Don't miss out on these extremely well-written, heartfelt stories. We have many of his mega-hit titles such as: Dear John, The Notebook, Nights in Rodanthe, At First Sight, Two-by-Two, The Longest Ride, and the list goes on!

We also have a section this summer dedicated to our Reading Program theme of Adventure! Send over your teens and littles and check out one of our many adventure-themed books! On that note, we'd like to send out a hearty thank you to Meadowlark Lane for their gift of "At the Library", a Shine a Light Book. See

We hope to see you soon!

4 WAYS TO WORK ON SPEECH SKILLS DURING THE SUMMER

Bubbles

Bubbles are easy to pack and can be used to target speech and language in many ways. For example, you can use bubbles to practice lip rounding for sounds like /b/ and /p/.

Water play

Water play can help younger children practice taking turns pouring or splashing, and older children can work on predicting what will happen or using irregular past-tense verbs.

Play with sand

Practice concepts and vocabulary skills with your little ones, like Dig vs Bury, Build vs Knock Down, or Construct vs Destroy

Sidewalk Chalk

Take turns giving directions to players for what to draw, or take turns creating a story with a character, place, and action.

Flower Walk

Go for a walk and find as many flowers as you can. Practice, your speech and language skills along the way!

MINDFUL MINUTE

Summertime Riddles

I have no eyes, no ears, and legs, and yet I help move the earth. What am I?

I bring music wherever I go. I keep things very cold. I have wheels. What am I?

I appear once in summer and twice in autumn, but never in winter. What am I?

Coal in my belly, steel on my feet. When I get hot it's time to eat. What am I?

You might love me in summer but I never like the sun. The hotter the weather, the softer I get. What am I?
